FEBRUARY 2012

It is my pleasure to welcome you to The Twelve Apostles Hotel and Spa. Whether you are here on business or pleasure, I hope that you will have time to experience some of the attractions that Cape Town has to offer. To help make the most of your visit, here are some of my recommendations. If we can be of any assistance in organising a visit to any of these events, please do not hesitate to contact me.

We hope you have a wonderful stay.

Shakespeare in the Park

An exotic alternative to the original initiative in London's Regent's Park, Shakespeare in the Park features a different play every summer at Cape Town's Maynardville Open-Air Theatre. Picnics in the nearby park complete this cultural night out under the stars. In 2012, Shakespeare's short and farcical play. The Comedy of Errors, is set to storm the stage in the form of a high-octane new production under the direction of Matthew Wild that draws from the world of classic 1970s Kung Fu cinema.

The Women's Show

Held at Cape Town International Convention Centre in February, The Women's Show provides a space for women to celebrate all things feminine. Ladies come to network, browse exhibits and participate in workshops and more. There are 130 exhibits, 140 live events and six interactive feature areas ranging from health and beauty to money, sex and women's rights. La Dolce Vita pavilion, for example, showcases new products by some of the best-known Italian brands like Maserati, Peroni and Lavazza, while the Wedding pavilion is packed with ideas for the perfect day.

Table Mountain Cable Way

R170.00 per adult, R80.00 per child (return)

Since the first person laid eyes on Table Mountain, it has exerted its powerful and charismatic pull, enchanting and drawing any and all that fall under its spell. Table Mountain's magnetism has a way of drawing people in, compelling them to reach the summit. But getting to the top was not always the effortless trip it is today.

Robben Island

From the 17th to the 20th centuries, Robben Island served as a place of banishment, isolation and imprisonment. Today it is a World Heritage Site and museum, a poignant reminder to the newly democratic South Africa of the price paid for freedom.

Price R220.00 for adults and R110.00 for children

Infecting The City – The Spier Public Arts Festival

Infecting The City is a performing arts festival held in Cape Town's streets and public spaces. Talented creative artists from around the world investigate a new theme every year through collaborative performance works, art installations, choreographed pieces and public interventions. Titled Treasures, the 2011 edition asks the audience to "look at what we've got!" to appreciate, claim and celebrate South Africa's trove of different cultures, traditions and heritages.

Shark Cage Diving with The Shark Lady

Shark Lady Adventures offers small exclusive shark diving trips and educational tours twice daily. This means that the trip is more informative AND you'll have more time in the cage. We are committed to being a responsible and eco-friendly operation. We do not interfere with the sharks, we do not chum and we do not pollute the environment. Shark Lady Adventures complies with the strictest code of conduct and safety for our clients, our boat, and the great white sharks, as laid down by local Marine & Coastal Management. Shark Lady Adventures conserve and protect the sharks and all marine life on our coastline. We are dedicated to creating awareness of Great White Sharks through education, especially to the local children who are the future of our country.
