Selection of Teas

Oriental Sencha

'Tea is a Panacea: it is a key to life' so wrote the monk Eisai in the 13th Century. The dark green leaves are blended with selected flowers to create a tea with a delightful aroma and delicate flavour.

Jasmine Blossom

One of the most popular green teas in the world, it has a remarkable fragrance of the night flowering Jasmine. The liquor has a honey yellow hue and an aroma of tropical flowers. The flavour is delicate with a fruity finish.

Sheer pleasure

As the name states this tea brings sheer pleasure. The initial is one of citrus fruit which fades away leaving a subtle liquorice aftertaste.

Chocolate Tea

This tea's flavour characteristic has a mild caramel note with a rich mocha chocolate undertone. This is a blend of the finest quality Sri Lankan/Chinese black full-leaf loose tea with white chocolate chips added to it. The liquor is amber with a deep sense of creaminess.

Garden Berries

An unusual orthodox bold leaf Ceylon green tea mixed with sultanas, raisins, raspberry granules, redcurrants, bilberries, cranberries and blackberries. This tea is a real burst of berries with their myriad of flavour notes. It looks delicious and tastes of high summer.
